3. Demonstrated clinical ability commensurate with that expected of a consultant physician.
4. Good understanding of the Public Health system; in particular the clinical and quality requirements for acute care service delivery.
5. Demonstrably superior interpersonal and negotiation skills.
6. Ability to work as part of a multi-disciplinary team, as well as independently.
7. Ability to interact and communicate with a diverse range of people at all levels

Generic Responsibilities

All Bendigo Health staff are required to:

- Adhere to the Victorian Government's Code of Conduct
- Uphold Occupational Health and Safety responsibilities, including self-care, safeguarding others, and participating in safety initiatives and reporting.
- Comply with all Bendigo Health policies and procedures, including those related to clinical, managerial, and standard work practices.
- Follow Infection Control procedures to prevent cross-contamination and ensure the health and safety of all.
- Maintain strict confidentiality regarding all organisational, patient, and staff information.

- Engage in continuous quality improvement activities aligned with the National Safety and Quality Health Service Standards (NSQHSS).
- Recognise and respect diversity, fostering inclusive practices in the workplace and service delivery.
- Staff must carry out all lawful and reasonable directions and comply with relevant professional standards and ethical codes.
- Safeguard children and young people in our care, by ensuring that your interactions are positive and safe, and report any suspicions or concerns of abuse by any person internal or external to Bendigo Health.
- Maintain ability to perform the inherent requirements of this role. Inherent requirements are the essential tasks necessary to perform this role, including reasonable adjustments. Bendigo Health is committed to a safe workplace that supports all employees. The role may require specific physical and cognitive abilities, which can be discussed with the manager during recruitment or at any time. We understand that personal circumstances can change and impact your ability to meet these requirements; additional policies are available to guide you through this process.
